Product Description

Internally cooked Bai Qi Nan Che Zhu crushed agarwood raw materials Hainan Bai Qi Shang Lu smoked spices, raw wood cut beads, crushed blocks

Nha Trang City is located in Xinghe Province, a coastal region in central Vietnam. Most of the agarwood in Vietnam is produced in the central mountainous areas of Fushen, Nha Trang, and Huian. Nha Trang, Vietnam is one of the production areas of agarwood. Nha Trang agarwood is a popular category in the agarwood production area. The natural environment has nurtured a land suitable for agarwood growth, and the agarwood produced has captivated fragrance enthusiasts around the world.

This Qinan agarwood has a high oil content, and if smoked, the aroma is very strong, making it more resistant to smoking than before. This store won't make any mistakes, it has a good cost performance ratio, and our service is also very good, trustworthy!

Quiet incense

The incense burner heats up, and the Qi Nan oil emits a rich aroma that soothes emotions, making people feel happy both physically and mentally

Strange and ever-changing rhymes

The aroma is rich and pungent, with a honey aroma accompanied by a hint of mint coolness
After heating, the aroma changes endlessly, which is very wonderful
